

In the name of God

Short biography

Hossein Sheikholeslami (1982) is an Iranian Entrepreneur, author and translator. He is educated in philosophy and began his career as critic-writer from 1999. He published more than 100 Scientific articles and around 10 books in Iranian magazines about literature, philosophy and theory all this years. His plans in entrepreneurship began in 2010, when he was the chief editor in a private-sector publication, named "Chekke" and simultaneously was the R&D manager of Ladybird Animation Studio. Now he is the first deputy general manager of National Foundation of Digital Content Entrepreneurship, and we can find some key roles in the innovation ecosystem in his career such as:

- The member of Cinema Committee of Cinema in Iranian Art Academy
- The Strategic Advisor of Farabi Cinema Foundation (FCF)
- The member of Extended Reality Committee of Scientific and technology Vice presidency
- The member of Editorial Board of Scientific magazines in theory and philosophy
- R&D manager of Nasl-e-Andishe-Sabz Studio (NAS)
- R&D manager of Animation Art Center
- The consultant of Education and introduction committee of Cultural Heritage Ministry of Iran